MY PROFILE

- I would describe myself as innovative, creative and someone who is prepared to go above and beyond what is required. My greatest strength is my ability to learn things quickly and positive attitude, even during the most hardest of times.
 - During my college project, there has been couple of occasions, when our idea was not falling in place and the results were negative. I had to believe and think positively and keep my team motivated to persist on our idea, and finally we got the desired result .
 - My best skill would be my verbal ability.
